Note: It is recognized that 1450 has certain investigative competence which would be of value in the pursuit of TRS training programs if the relationship between DD/P and 1450 was better. However, the writer has been discouraged by his TRS superiors re any joint efforts with 1450 and therefore suggests that outside liaison may be the only answer to the expeditious acquisition of essential training material and training aids re those BASIC TECHNIQUES common to all police and security service work throughout the world.
